- 1) acknowledges that the rights and obligations of students are set out in the Act of 20 July 2018 – Law on Higher Education and Science (Journal of Laws of 2024, item 1571, as amended) and the implementing regulations to that Act, the text of which is available on the website <https://isap.sejm.gov.pl>, as well as the Statutes of the Medical University of Lublin of 21 August 2024 and Senate Resolution No. 45/2026 of 22 April 2026 on the Study Regulations of the Medical University of Lublin, Resolution No. 153/2022 of the Senate of the Medical University of Lublin dated 30 March 2022 on the rules for charging fees for educational services provided by the Medical University of Lublin on English-language single-cycle Master's degree programmes in medicine and – dentistry, and first-cycle degree programmes in nursing and midwifery under the International Programme, as amended by Resolution No. 359/2024 of the Senate of the Medical University of Lublin dated 27 March 2024, and Regulation No. 65/2022 of the Rector of the Medical University in Lublin dated 14 April 2022 on fees relating to the pursuit of studies and fees for educational services provided by the Medical University of Lublin under the International Programme, as amended by Regulation No. 81/2025 of the Rector of the Medical University of Lublin dated 23 April 2025 and Regulation No. 69/2026

of the Rector of the Medical University of Lublin dated 23 March 2026, the text of which is available on the University's Public Information Bulletin (BIP) website and at https://www.umlub.pl/en, and undertakes to familiarise themselves with their content and to comply with them;

- 2) undertakes to pay, in a timely manner, into the individual bank account designated for each student, the relevant fees for educational services provided by the University in connection with their degree programme, in accordance with the terms, amounts and deadlines set out in the regulations, referred to in point 1, and in particular:
 - a) the basic fee,
 - b) a fee for repeating specific modules due to unsatisfactory academic performance, i.e.: repeating a module/semester, including in the event of repeating specific modules after resuming studies,
 - c) fees for courses not included in the study programme or for courses undertaken as part of a programme to make up for differences in the curriculum,
 - d) fees for attending remedial courses,
 - e) fees for attending other courses organised at the request of students,
 - f) fees for National Board of Medical Examiners (NBME) examinations,
 - g) fees for the issue of documents relating to the course of study: a student record book at the student's request, an electronic student ID card and their duplicates, the issue of an additional copy of the degree certificate or a copy of the diploma supplement in a foreign language, other than those issued pursuant to Article 77(2) of the Act on Higher Education and Science,
 - h) a fee for the issue of a duplicate degree certificate and a duplicate diploma supplement,
 - i) the fee for the authentication of documents relating to the course of study or graduation in the case referred to in Article 78(4) of the Act on Higher Education and Science;

- 3) if the instalment payment option is chosen, the student undertakes to submit the relevant declaration before the start of their studies; this declaration will apply to the entire duration of their studies, bearing in mind that the declaration submitted by the student regarding the method of payment for tuition fees may be amended; a declaration regarding the choice of payment by instalments may also be submitted during the course of study, with effect from the start of the next semester;
- 4) undertakes to act in accordance with the oath taken and to comply with the University's regulations throughout the duration of their studies;
- 5) undertakes to notify the University in writing of any changes to their personal details and acknowledges that the student shall bear the consequences of failing to fulfil this obligation; in the event of a failure to fulfil this obligation, correspondence sent to the student's previous address shall be deemed to have been delivered;
- 6) undertakes to keep confidential any protected information obtained during their studies, in particular patient data, and to comply with the rules governing the handling of such information and data, especially with regard to safeguarding them against unauthorised access, unjustified modification or destruction, unlawful disclosure or acquisition, and to use such information exclusively for purposes related to activities carried out as part of their studies.

2. The student hereby acknowledges that:

- 1) the date on which the payment is credited to the University's bank account shall be deemed the date of payment;
- 2) for any delay in payment, the University is entitled to charge statutory interest for late payment;
- 3) removal from the register of students does not exempt the student from the obligation to pay any outstanding fees together with interest;

- 4) the University shall not be liable for the consequences of an incorrect allocation of a payment arising from circumstances attributable to the payer, in particular as a result of entering an incorrect bank account number, missing details or entering incorrect details identifying the student or the obligation to which the payment relates;
- 5) in the event of withdrawal from studies or removal from the register of students for other reasons specified in the Act and the Study Regulations, the tuition fees referred to in Part 1, point 2(a)–(c) of this Annex shall be refunded in full or in part in accordance with the following rules:
 - a) in full, should a student withdraw or be removed from the register before the start of the semester for which the fee has been paid;
 - b) in part, if a student withdraws or is removed from the register during the semester for which the fee has been paid, i.e. the fee due is reduced by 1/15 of the fee for each full week of teaching not attended, starting from:
 - the date on which the application for withdrawal was submitted, or
 - the date on which the decision to remove the student from the register becomes final, subject to point 7;
- 6) in the event that long-term leave is granted, point 5(b) shall apply accordingly;
- 7) in the case of students benefiting from loans granted by the US Department of Education, the amount of tuition fees due may be calculated in accordance with the rules laid down by the US Department of Education;
- 8) Fees are refundable upon request by the student, to the bank account specified in the application;

Appendix No. 3 to Regulation No. 175/2026
of the Rector of the Medical University of Lublin dated 20 August 2026

- 9) at the student's request, the University permits a cash withdrawal at a bank designated by the University, which provides cash services in EUR/USD on the basis of a withdrawal instruction;
- 10) bank charges associated with the refund of an overpayment resulting from circumstances attributable to the student shall be borne by that student.

This declaration has been drawn up in two identical copies, one for the student and one for the University.
